Prescott

Boasting a down-home atmosphere and a cherished past, the mile- high city of Prescott proudly calls itself “Everybody’s Hometown”. Less than two hours from Phoenix via interstate and divided highway, it is surrounded by the Prescott National Forest, which offers extensive recreational opportunities. The Prescott Resort is located a mile away from historic “Whiskey Row” and all the charm of historic Prescott.

Prescott Resort and Conference Center

Resting on the “Top of the Rock”, offering beautiful views of the warmth and scenery of the Prescott Valley and surrounding mountains, the Prescott Resort is a full-service resort and Casino facility. It is the choice hotel for those seeking a luxurious getaway in Northern Arizona. Located just 90 miles northwest from Phoenix, the Prescott Resort is a great escape for a relaxed weekend along with convention meetings.

The Prescott Resort Hotel offers 160 guest rooms with private balconies and modern amenities that cater to the guest’s needs, i.e., High-speed Internet and Flat Screen televisions. Each room was designed in the spirit of the Yavapai Prescott Indian Tribe and offers artwork indicative of the majestic scenery of the Prescott area. Relax and unwind with comfortable and spacious accommodations.

Consider extending your stay to enjoy golf, three local history museums, jeep tours, horse-back riding, fishing, train rides and other fun activities for the adventurous. Have a spa treatment or a lucky time at the on-site Bucky’s Casino.
